

To whom it may concern

For me it is a pleasure to recommend the WHITE NIGHTS OPERA AUDITIONS as an opportunity to find Russian singers for opera houses: the general level of the participants was amazing. We have gotten concrete ideas for different casts and meanwhile we made binding offers.

From our arrival until our departure we felt well supported. The friendly and capable attendance of Peter and his team was outstanding. The audition was tightly organized and we got good information about the candidates, including background knowledge.

As a person who has to stay in Hotels quite often, I enjoyed the choice of Alexander's House Hotel very much: it was individual, clean and had a very friendly staff.

I can recommend WHITE NIGHT OPERA AUDITIONS with a clear conscience for people who are interested in finding new ideas for opera casting.
